

SEX EDUCATION POLICY

This subject will not be treated as a separate item on the Curriculum. There are various occasions when opportunities arise for discussions to take place, or for children to ask questions.

I.E:-

- New pets.
- Birth of young to pets.
- New babies at home.
- Television Programmes }
- Seen at home. }
- Video films }
- (Sometimes things seen in the park).

Such questions should always be answered truthfully and in as much detail as is appropriate for the particular child and the circumstance.

In discussions, where it is deemed advisable the Christian view of morality and marriage can be aired without overdue pronouncements of judgement being made.

All are to be loved for themselves as God's children.
